

PRACTICAL GUIDE MONACO

WELCOME TO MONACO!

Linked to the Grimaldi family for seven hundred years, the Principality has progressively found its place at the centre of the world stage, particularly since the reign of Prince Rainier III and that of his son H.S.H. Prince Albert II. Member of the United Nations and the Council of Europe, Monaco is a prosperous and conveniently located state, with a flourishing economy and undoubted international influence. Above all, the Principality is an outstanding tourist destination. As well as its superb natural location, it has a large number of luxury hotels, gastronomic restaurants, top-of-the-range well-being centres, sports facilities and a lively night-life.

THROUGH THE AGES

HISTORY

Although the name “Monaco” appeared back in Antiquity, it was in 1297, with the arrival of the Grimaldi dynasty, that the history of the Principality began. Over seven hundred years later, Prince Albert II continues the efforts of his illustrious ancestors. Here are a few dates to remember.

8 JANUARY 1297

François Grimaldi, a Guelph disguised as a monk, is said to have used trickery to seize the fortress. The memory of this episode lives on with the Grimaldi coat of arms: it features two monks brandishing swords.

1863

A new Société des Bains de Mer was created by François Blanc. A casino opened in the Spélugues neighbourhood.

1906

Prince Albert I, famous for his scientific expeditions on seas all over the world, founded the Oceanographic Institute.

1911

Monaco’s first constitution. The Monte-Carlo Car Rally was launched and Sergei Diaghilev’s Russian ballet company gave its first performances.

1923

Birth of Prince Rainier III, son of Princess Charlotte and Prince Pierre de Polignac.

1929

First Monaco Grand Prix.

1949

Prince Rainier III succeeded his grandfather Prince Louis II.

1956

Prince Rainier III married American actress Grace Kelly.

1993

On 28 May, Monaco became the 183rd Member-State of the United Nations.

2005

After the death of his father Rainier III on 6 April, H.S.H. Prince Albert II became Sovereign of the Principality.

2011

Prince Albert II married Charlene Wittstock.

10 DECEMBER 2014

Birth of HSH Crown Prince Jacques and HSH Princess Gabriella.

MONACO'S UNIQUE ROLE ON THE WORLD STAGE

INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE

Monaco's international reputation undoubtedly starts here, on 202 hectares of land whose 38,300 residents represent one hundred and thirty-nine nationalities. The Monegasque population totals 9,259. The official language is French, but Italian and English are also spoken well and are widely used in various business fields. With its embassies and consulates abroad, its role in many international and intergovernmental organisations and institutions, plus cooperative projects, the Principality is present all over the world.

DIPLOMACY

Seventeen ambassadors are accredited to thirty countries (figures on 14 November 2018). Four of these seventeen ambassadors are permanent representatives of the Principality at the UN in New York, at the Council of Europe in Strasbourg, at UNESCO in Paris, and at the Order of Malta in Rome. Eighty-three foreign ambassadors are accredited to the Principality, but only three of them (France, Italy and the Sovereign and Military Order of Malta) reside in Monaco. The others are accredited via Paris, Berlin, Andorra la Vella, San Marino, Malta, Geneva and Brussels.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS

The Principality joined the UN in 1993. It is also a member of thirteen specialist organisations within the United Nations.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

In line with the eight Millennium Development Goals adopted by the United Nations in 2000, Prince Albert II has, on several occasions, ensured that Monaco remains exemplary in matters of international solidarity.

DYNAMISM AND INNOVATION ECONOMY

With its many shops, its varied, efficient and constantly evolving service sector, its diversified and innovative industrial sector and its tourism, Monaco offers a dynamic business environment.

RETAIL

Monaco's 800 shops and 400 wholesale outlets generate almost 50% of the Principality's turnover.

SERVICES

Information, telecommunications, transport, maritime activities, banking, insurance, health... The service sector is extremely varied and constantly growing. For example the health sector now employs almost 3,880 people. In terms of banking, all of the main foreign financial establishments are represented in the Principality.

INDUSTRY

Industry in Monaco is clean and extremely varied. Over one hundred businesses grouped in the Fontvieille neighbourhood employ almost 2,900 people in the fields of chemistry, cosmetology, plastics processing and cardboard packaging to name but a few.

TOURISM

Tourism has been spearheading Monaco's economy since 1866. It takes three different forms: leisure tourism, business tourism, and cruising and luxury yachting, with the latter experiencing particularly strong growth.

AT THE HEART OF THE LEGEND
THINGS TO SEE

The diversity of museums and places to visit reflects how important art, history and culture are in Monaco. Visiting them is to step into the legend. And as the Principality has always had very deep links with nature, Monaco also offers an outstanding variety of parks and gardens. Walk this way...

PRINCE'S PALACE | A STATE APARTMENTS

For seven centuries, the Grimaldi family has reigned over the Principality. A tour of the State Rooms allows you to discover their pomp and splendour and go on a journey through the centuries, from the Renaissance to the Napoleonic era. Built on the site of a Genoese fortress of 1215, the Princely Palace holds a thousand treasures such as its Court of Honour, its imposing double staircase leading to the Galerie d'Hercule and the State Rooms. Every day at 11.55 a.m., on the Place du Palais, the Changing of the Guard of the Prince's Carabiniers offers a timeless and unique ritual to spectators.

Activities are regularly organised throughout the year in this favourite destination for a family outing.

GARDENS OF SAINT-MARTIN & SAINTE-BARBE | P

Charming paths wind their way through gardens on either side of the Monaco Oceanographic Museum. Landscaped in the 1830s, they are home to Mediterranean plants.

PARK OF HERITAGE TREES

Established as part of the initiative “Monaco Against Deforestation,” the Parcours des Arbres Patrimoniaux (Park of Heritage Trees) displays the finest specimens in the Principality, chosen for their dimensions, age and rarity.

SCULPTURE TRAIL

Over 130 works by major contemporary artists - such as «The Fist» by César and «Adam and Eve» by Botero - are to be admired on a walk through the parks and gardens of the Principality, particularly in Fontvieille and Monaco town centre.

ON THE TRAIL OF PRINCESS GRACE

Twenty-five photos bearing texts in five languages are dotted throughout the Principality in a tribute to actions carried out by Princess Grace.

CHAMPIONS' PROMENADE | Q

The world's greatest footballers have left their footprints along a sporting «Walk of Fame» that edges the seafront. Pelé, Cantona, Ibrahimovic, Baresi and Matthäus recently extended this amazing and unique collection.

ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE

Monaco is brimming with architectural treasures - from Monte-Carlo with the Casino, the Hôtel de Paris, the Hôtel Hermitage, Saint Charles' Church and Villa Sauber, to the Rock featuring the Princes Palace, the Cathedral, the Monaco Oceanographic Museum, the Law Courts, the Chapelle de la Miséricorde and Fort Antoine, via La Condamine, home to the Church of Sainte-Dévote.

ESCAPADES

Monaco is the starting point for a whole range of excursions along the coast and into the hinterland, embracing both the Italian and French Rivieras.

SHOPPING

Monaco is heaven on earth for anyone who loves shopping. The latest and the best in fashion, jewellery, watches and leather goods are to be found in shopping malls, high streets and local markets in Monte-Carlo and La Condamine. Famous luxury brands nestle around the Casino in the Cercle d'Or neighbourhood and in the Park Palace shopping gallery and Promenade Monte-Carlo Shopping.

SPORTS

The importance of sport within the Principality is reflected in its wide and innovative range of sports facilities. Proximity to the sea and the mountains means that a host of outdoor activities is also on the menu.

WELLBEING & BEAUTY

Rest, relax, unwind and recharge your batteries ... where better than in Monaco? The Thermes Marins Monte-Carlo, the spas in the big hotels, the beauty parlours and hair salons scattered throughout the Principality, are all dedicated to one and the same goal while you're here: your wellbeing.

NIGHTLIFE

The cosy ambiance of a hotel, a trendy bar, a charming café... In Monaco you will always find the perfect place to enjoy amazing cocktails, savour a freshly brewed beer or sample a vintage wine. With a movie theatre located in the centre of Monte-Carlo plus an outdoor cinema, and the Sporting Monte-Carlo programming world-class shows and concerts, Monaco holds the promise of entertaining evenings. And for those who wish to dance on into the night, Monaco is a premium destination for the planet's sophisticated clubbers. The Principality attracts the best international DJs, who spin their turntables in legendary venues.

EVENTS IN THE PRINCIPALITY

On top of a cultural programme brimming with operas, dance (notably the Monte-Carlo Ballet Company), theatre, philharmonic concerts, galas and exhibitions, life in the Principality is peppered with major cultural events. Some examples: the Spring Art Festival, the Monaco Dance Forum, the Monte-Carlo Jazz Festival, the International Circus Festival, the Festival of Television, Monaco Art en Ciel "Sky Art" (international pyro-musical fireworks competition). Monaco also stages international sporting competitions such as the Monte-Carlo Rolex Masters, the F1 Grand Prix, Jumping International of Monte-Carlo, the Monte-Carlo Rally and the Herculis meeting.

GOURMET DINING

STAR-RATED RESTAURANTS

There is a rich variety of great restaurants in Monaco, including some outstanding establishments where talented chefs let their imaginations run free... to the delight of the diners' taste buds.

LOUIS XV-
ALAIN DUCASSE
À L'HÔTEL DE PARIS
★★★ Michelin
It is here, at the Louis XV-Alain Ducasse at the Hôtel de Paris, in completely renewed surroundings, that a unique culinary repertoire finds its expression of which the Riviera is the constant lavish inspiration. The menu of chef Dominique Lory and Alain Ducasse affirms its modernity and youth. Robust sauces, intense stocks, fresh spices, above all it reveals the exactitude and precision of the flavours. The story continues, more beautiful than ever.

JOËL ROBUCHON MONTE-CARLO
★★ Michelin
The kitchen opens onto the dining area in the restaurant of the Hôtel Métropole Monte-Carlo does its, where Joël Robuchon has selected chef Christophe Cussac to relay his expertise. Pride of place is given to inventive and flavoursome gastronomy. The interior design by Jacques Garcia features draped fabrics and colonnades that conjure up a theatre.

LE BLUE BAY
MARCEL RAVIN
★ Michelin
The bold cuisine of chef Marcel Ravin has earned a star in the Michelin Guide. His fusion of Caribbean and Mediterranean savours is to be sampled at the Blue Bay restaurant of the Monte-Carlo Bay Hotel & Resort. Inside, open kitchens place the effervescence of the kitchen staff and the chef centre stage. Outside, guests appreciate the view across the Bay of Monaco from the panoramic terrace.

LE GRILL
★ Michelin
Le Grill, the legendary establishment on the 8th floor of Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, is bringing back the fish and meat dishes that made the restaurant's reputation. The spirit is there, too, with the retractable roof that offers patrons the pleasure of dining under the stars when the weather is fine.

LE VISTAMAR

★ Michelin
At the Vistamar restaurant of the Hermitage Hotel Monte-Carlo, chef Witz composes a gourmet menu, healthy with refined flavours, subtly linking well-being and gastronomy. Dishes to share punctuate the tasting, for a lunch or dinner on one of the most beautiful terraces in Monaco.

YOSHI

★ Michelin
Joël Robuchon's first Japanese restaurant offers exceptional, truly subtle innovative cuisine in the soothing environment of a Japanese garden. Recognised for its contemplative ambiance and dishes that are both elegant and tasty, the restaurant nestles within the Hôtel Métropole Monte-Carlo.

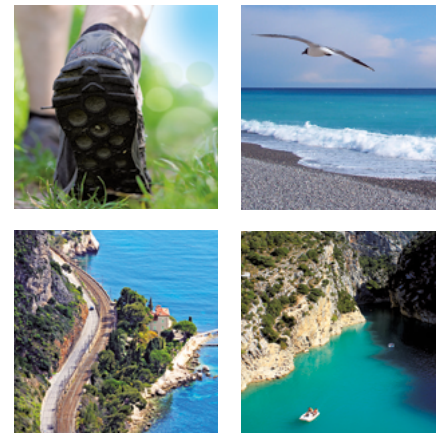

ELSA

★ Michelin
The new gourmet restaurant at the Monte-Carlo Beach serves top-quality, contemporary cuisine that draws its legitimacy from the culinary history of the Riviera. The authentic menu at Elsa, created by Paolo Sari, is guaranteed 100% organic, using fresh fruit and vegetables from Nice's hinterland to get back to the basics of seasonal cuisine.
